VOL. VI. NO. 5.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE CASE OF T. BURNS.

Jockey T. Burns has done so much riding over the Chicago tracks that the local interest in his career is of no small measure. His suspension recently was a surprise to local admirers of his skill but seems to have been amply deserved. The day after his suspension the San Francisco Chronicle said of his case:

"Burns was down to ride Sly in the last race yesterday. He refused to accept the mount after it had been duly made by George Tuthill, who arranged for all his mounts. The judges ordered Burns to ride, but he dressed and quietly left the jockeys' room and the track, which necessitated the scratching of Sly at the eleventh hour.

"After the race Judge Murphy, the presiding judge at Oakland, announced that Burns had been indefinitely suspended for insubordination and riotous living. 'We do not propose to allow any jockey to dictate to the judges' stand,' said Murphy. 'Thorpe at first refused to ride February, but he was told that if he did not accept the mount his license would be revoked. Thorpe very wisely decided to ride. We find that Burns has been running around a good deal since he came to California. He has been playing cards all night and has been a constant visitor along the Tenderloin.'

"Judge Murphy also stated that the officers of Tanforan and at New Orleans had been notified not to allow Burns to weigh in at these tracks, and that he would not be granted a jockey's license.

"It has been an open secret that Burns has been dissatisfied with his California experience. He claims that he has been discriminated against in stable mounts in favor of Thorpe. In fact, Thorpe has ridden several pounds overweight in several instances. This state of affairs may have been brought about by Burns' riotous living, which was a matter of common notoriety. However, if Burns is refused a license it will mean his complete banishment from the turf. He is one of the richest jockeys in America, having earned a princely salary for the past three years.

"It appears that there is another side to the story that does not put Burns in such a bad light. Mr. Hanlon wished to scratch Sly, as he says she was coughing, and he went to the judges. They sent Jack Dinne to see the mare, and, as the judges refused to allow her to be scratched, he must have reported her to be all right, although Mr. Hanlon claims that she coughed while Dinne was in her stall. Mr. Hanlon claims that he only secured Burns late in the afternoon and that the boy refused to ride only after he heard that she had been coughing."

The Examiner of last Sunday throws some additional light on the case in the following statements:

"Burns, in the language of Manager Tuthill of the Burns & Waterhouse stable, 'handed the judges a few bunches of coarse repartee.' This phrase being translated means that he was impudent. And it was not the first time. The prompt punishment measured out to him shows how foolish is the jockey who thinks he is beyond the control of the men in the stand. Judges, as a rule, do not ask much of riders. If they are honest and respectful they do not get into trouble. But much adulation and some success had magnified T. Burns to himself, and he saw himself as the main man and the stewards in eclipse.

"Whether the officials intend to give him a lesson or permanently punish him, they probably have not themselves determined. At any rate, the chance is by no means remote that one of the highest salaried jockeys in the business may never ride again.

"Burns' present predicament is probably due in some measure to his employment of a manager. Jockeys nowadays are like opera stars and pugilists—they are obliged to have some one look after their business affairs. At least this is true with regard to those who have any business affairs to look after. A young man named Ellison has been acting in this capacity for Burns for several years. Ellison attended to the signing of the contract with Schorr & Son, and did it so well that it cost that firm several thousand dollars more than it should have done, before they could obtain control of his services. He was in the habit of making Burns' engagements to ride outside of the stable, but on this coast that duty has been attended to by George Tuthill, manager for Burns & Waterhouse. This was according to contract. But it was not entirely to Ellison's satisfaction, and there is a strong probability that he encouraged Burns, who is strongly under his influence, to manifest the displeasure he felt."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"Secretary E. C. Hopper, of the American Turf Congress and the Latonia Jockey Club, arrived from California yesterday. Mr. Hopper is here to get matters in readiness for the special meeting of the Turf Congress on January 25. He left San Francisco Saturday evening after the close of Oakland, where he is one of the associate judges.

"The great climate of the Golden Gate state shows its effects on Mr. Hopper's appearance. The popular racing official looks much improved in health since leaving here last fall, and has nothing but praise for the country around San Francisco.

"In speaking of the racing at Oakland and Tanforan this winter Mr. Hopper said:

"This is one of the best seasons ever known for the Frisco tracks. The sport is excellent and the betting very good. One of the most notable features of the racing is the abundance of high-class jockeys. There are more good riders on the coast this season than ever before known. Besides the shining lights, such as Thorpe, Spencer, Jones, Bullman, Jenkins and Burns, we have a lot of promising material in the light-weight boys who are just making a name for themselves. An owner does not have much trouble in getting a good youngster at any weight to ride this year. Yellow Tail is, I think, the best three-year-old out there."

"Concerning the coming meeting of the Turf Congress to take up the date question Mr. Hopper had little to say. He is, of course, in favor of the scheme, and wants to see the Southwestern circuit formed."

"Cobham's" latest letter from London to Morning Telegraph says concerning some of the American horses now in England:

"Mr. W. C. Whitney has claimed names for eight of his yearlings which are in training in Clarkson's stable at Pimfene, as follows: Watershed, ch. c, by Watercross—Parthenia; Model Gun, br. c, by Artillery—Miss Clay; Dick Wynne, b. c, by Goldfinch—Ottawin; Jacket, b. f, by Hindoo—Jaconet; Honi Soit, ch. f, by Golden Garter—Molly Walton; Pretty Garter, ch. f, by Golden Garter—Alesia. The above are American bred yearlings, and in addition to them Mr. Whitney claims names for two English-bred fillies as follows: Ondulee, b. f, by St. Simon—Ormie, and Angel's Dance, b. f, by St. Angele—Vasouvianna.

"Mr. Gerald Paget, who also trains with Clarkson, claims the name of Dawning Love for Winner—B. f, by Belgowan—Parolee. Post 2 minutes. Start fair. The first two were driving to the limit. Genua got off flying and only this good luck enabled her to win. Monda closed resolutely and ran a better race than Genua. Clarando got off badly and may have been best as he was gaining at the close. Katie Gibbons ran a fast last quarter. The judges did not like Storm King's showing and questioned Morgan severely. Gold Baron showed speed and will do to watch on a slow track in poorer company.

Scratched—16238 Revanna, 104; 16296 St. Isidore, 93. Overweights—Clarando, 3 pounds; Terrene, 3; Pat Murphy, 5; Antioch, 5. Genua, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Monda, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Clarando, show, 3 to 5. Storm King, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by Top Gallant—Welcome. Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next two were driving hard. White Fern was well ridden, always a contender and probably best. Ping ran well and closed strongly. Racivan showed the most speed but was kept under too much restraint for three-quarters and when given his head had nothing left. Sam Dannebaum ran a good race. Faversham II. did not like the weight or distance. Vassal showed a little early speed only.

Scratched—16217 Whaleback, 103; 16281 March Seven, 87; 16261 Ailenna, 87. Overweights—Faversham II., 2 pounds. White Fern, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Ping, place, 24 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Racivan, show, 4 to 5. Faversham II., place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Vassal, place, 9 to 10; show, 2 to 5.

The annual meeting of the Jockey Club will be held on Thursday, January 18, when the vacancies that will take place through the expiration of the terms of some of the stewards will be filled, and a general election of officers will take place. The reports of the doings of the Jockey Club will be submitted and read,
and arrangements will be made for the prosecution of a vigorous policy during the coming racing season.

The question of racing dates will be decided at a meeting to be called when it is possible to have all the stewards present. It is not at all likely that there will be any hitch, neither is it anticipated that there will be any dissatisfaction expressed at the apportionment decided upon by the governing body of the turf.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

King's Courier arrived at Newmarket in excellent condition and was placed in active work a few days after his arrival. He has been on the heath every day with Richard Croker's string. Enoch Wishard, Mr. Croker's trainer, has charge of King's Courier, and believes him to be a match for any three-year-old in England, not excepting Democrat nor Flying Fox.

The names of Advance Guard and Zoroaster will in all probability be found among the Brooklyn Handicap entries when the returns from California have arrived. They have been doing so well on the coast that Alex Shields, who owns the pair and expects to race in the east next season, thinks he might as well try for some of the big game.

W. C. Whitney is building a new barn with twenty-five boxes on his country place at Aiken, S. C. It is understood that hereafter a part of the Whitney string will be wintered at that place. There is a good five furlong track on the grounds, and the climate in the spring permits of giving horses an early preparation.

Time, 26, 434, 504, 1:094.
Winner—Ch. f, by Riley—Miss Murphy.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Alice Dougherty got off badly and was the best of the lot. She is a rarely good filly and ran around the field without difficulty.
Limerick ran his race. Choteau is improving. He came from eighth place. Isaline got off last and had no chance. She is a good filly and ran in the heaviest going. Redwald and Fine Shot showed early speed.

Scratched—16273 Aborigine, 112; 16116 Diomed, 112; 16270 Sisqueuc, 112; 16273 Tizona, 112.
Alice Dougherty, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Limerick, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Choteau, show, 4 to 1.

ANNUAL MEETING, 1899.

OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR.

W. F. SCHULTE, President.
Address, Louisville, Ky.
JAMES HOWARD, Vice-President.
Address, Chicago, Ill.
O. L. BRADLEY, Treasurer.
Address, Lexington, Ky.
E. C. HOPPER, Secretary.
Address, Covington, Ky.

J. B. DILLON, Assistant Secretary.
New member elected—The Western Turf Association of South San Francisco, Cal.

By-Law XVI changed so as to provide for an assistant secretary.

By-Law XIX changed by adding the words "through the secretary" after the word "Congress" in seventh line.

Rule No. 6 was stricken out.

Rule No. 17 was changed to read as follows: The colors selected by owners must be registered with the Secretary of the Congress and when thus registered shall not be used by others except in case of death or after five years' withdrawal from the turf. Any owner racing in colors not registered shall be fined. A fee of $1.00 shall be charged for registering and the Secretary shall issue a certificate of registration. In case of conflicting claims those now registered with the Secretary shall have prior claim.

A list of colors that have been registered shall be furnished each member by the Secretary of the Congress and shall be posted in the office of the Clerk of the Scales.

Rule 18—Every person or horse expelled or ruled off by any reputable running association, or by the American or the National Trotting Association, shall stand ruled off the courses of the members of this Congress during the continuance of such expulsion. Any Association that shall knowingly allow any ruled-off or expelled person or horse to participate in its racing shall be outlawed.

Rule 27—Any owner, trainer, jockey or horse, that shall in any way participate in racing under injunction proceedings, or any owner, trainer or jockey that shall attempt to nullify by legal process the rulings of officials in case of fraud shall be barred from all privileges of the tracks of this Congress. This rule to take effect from date of passage.

Rule 95—Declarations in purse races must be made by the owner, trainer or other person deputed by him, to the Secretary or his assistant by 12 o'clock (noon) of the day of the race, or at such other time as he may appoint.

When a party having more than one horse entered in a purse, shall declare one out, he thereby declares all out, but this rule shall not apply to handicaps.

Declarations in purse races must be accompanied by five (5) per cent. of the first money.

In purse races with more than eight entries, owners can declare out to that number free of charge, the right to declare free being determined by lot, as occasion may require.

All declaration fees in purse races shall go; 60 per cent. to second horse and 40 per cent. to third horse.

In case one horse distances the field in heat races, all entrance and declaration money must go with the purse.

Rule 105—No jockey, except when riding for his contract employer, shall be weighed out for any race unless there has been deposited for him with the Clerk of the Scales the fee for a losing mount in that race, and the Clerk of the Scales shall keep the accounts for the jockeys, pay over to them the money collected, unless he has notice to the contrary, and for his services shall receive two per cent. of the amount collected. The failure to deposit this fee for the jockey engaged for any horse shall declare it out of the race.

Rule 157—Stricken out.

Rule 160—In selling races the horse's engagements are included if the horse is bought claimed.

Rule 172—Owners and trainers employing riders, grooms or attendants shall make their contracts in writing, properly signed and witnessed, whenever the time covered by the contract exceeds thirty days. Any person who shall entice or attempt to entice away from an employer, a rider, groom or attendant who is under contract, may be fined or ruled off. No contract shall be binding under these rules, the provisions of which give an employer any interest whatever in the earnings of a jockey, and the License Committee shall grant no license to jockeys bound by such contracts. Any employer or jockey misrepresenting the terms of any contract shall be ruled off.

In the absence of written agreement the engagement of a jockey, groom or attendant terminates with the last day of each month. If a jockey, groom or attendant be prevented from riding or service by suspension for fraudulent practices or other misconduct, any person who has retained or employed him may cancel the contract or retainer. In like cases, if any owner or trainer be prevented from running or training by suspension for fraudulent practices or other misconduct, the rider, groom or attendant may cancel the contract or retainer.

Rule 176—Jockey fee is fixed at $25.

Rule 178—If a jockey engaged for a certain race, or for a specified time, refuses to fulfill an engagement, the Judges shall fine or suspend him.

Rule 19—Steeplechases stricken out. It is a duplicate.

The following new Rule was adopted: No person against whom there are outstanding forfeit orders or other arrears issued by members of the Congress shall receive a trainer's or jockey's license until the same are paid.

The following new Rule was passed: Any person who shall enter or run a horse or allow a horse to be entered in a selling race while any claim is held against such horse, either as a bill of sale, chattel mortgage or lien of any nature, by anyone, without making the fact known at the time of entry shall be considered guilty of fraud and shall immediately be ruled off by the Judges, and any and all persons claiming title or ownership of any horse after such horse has run in the name of another person, having peaceable and undisturbed possession of same, shall be considered guilty of fraud and be ruled off by the operation of this rule. This rule to take effect immediately.

Messrs. Tarlton, Fowler and Hopper were appointed committee to edit rules.

The name of the Chicago Racing Association was changed on the records to the Chicago Jockey Club.

L. D. Hall, James Arthur and J. R. Hand, who participated in racing at Woodstock, Ill., run contrary to American Racing Rules, were reinstated. The horses, Barrier and Ramona, were refused reinstatement.

The mare Maxine, formerly Fleur de Lis, whose name was changed East to conform to their registration rule, was permitted to run under the name of Maxine on Congress tracks.

The following resolution was adopted: Inasmuch as the fund of the Turf Congress has accumulated beyond all possible future necessities, and as the fixed revenues are ample for annual expenses, Resolved, That the Congress appropriate to each of its members the sum of $1,000, or as much thereof as the different clubs may designate, to which a like amount shall be added by each club, to be known as the Turf Congress Sweepstakes of 1900, and to be run in one or more stakes as each club may provide. Of the sum appropriated one-half shall be paid to the trainers and jockeys of the three placed horses, as follows: Forty per cent., 20 per cent. and 10 per cent. to the trainers of the first, second and third horses respectively, and 15 per cent., 10 per cent. and 5 per cent. respectively to the jockeys riding them. And when any Association shall show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Congress that the above stake has been given and that its conditions have been complied with in full, he shall authorize the Treasurer of the Congress to pay over to each one complying the requisite amounts.

The time for forfeiture of membership on account of not giving a meeting within the year was extended to September 1, 1900.

The registration rule was amended so as to conform to the rule governing the Stud Book, except that portion of the Stud Book rule relating to the naming of foals. The old naming rule still stands.

The Committee on Appeals has rendered the following opinions, viz.:
"In the case of L. H. Ezell against the Harlem Jockey Club, we are of the opinion that Rule No. 26 was complied with. The rule does not contemplate that the complainant shall, in person, give notice within five days. We hold that he may in person, by an attorney, or other authorized person, give the notice. In what more official way could he give notice than through the Secretary of the Committee on Appeals? Hence the claim of the Harlem Jockey Club that Mr. Ezell could have no standing before the committee is untenable. So far as these papers show the decision of the club that the race was no contest is erroneous, and the purse should be paid to the proper parties."
Stanley Francis and John Krepper, outlaws, were reinstated by the committee.

Mr. Nathanson notifies me that Fred Smith has been suspended for the inconsistent running of the horse Astor, and recommends revocation of his license as trainer.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestor. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.
